

CARMEL CLAY PUBLIC LIBRARY

SPEAKERS BUREAU

Are you searching for an interesting, informative speaker for your next meeting?

Would you like to learn more about the services and resources available at the Carmel Clay Public Library?

If so, look no further! The Carmel Clay Public Library is pleased to offer its Library Speakers Bureau.

The Speakers Bureau consists of library staff members who are prepared to enlighten audiences about library services and resources – at no cost to your organization. Our speakers can provide a concise, information-packed presentation that will contain valuable information for your members.

Presentations can be tailored to cover a variety of topics ranging from 10 to 60 minutes. Sample topics include:

- General Library Information and Services
- What's Happening at Your Library
- Business Resources
- Downloadable eBooks, Audiobooks, Magazines
- Homework Help

Presentations can be given at your group's meeting location or hosted at the library. Tours of the library are also available.

If your group or organization is interested in scheduling a presentation, or if you have any questions, please contact Brian Barrett at bbarrett@carmel.lib.in.us or 317-814-3955.
